

Time to Dance

CLASSIC
CHASSIDIC
NIGGUNIM

TIME TO DANCE — THE INNER SOUL OF CHASSIDIC MUSIC

*T*ime to Dance” proudly brings you the fifth album in the classic series. As in the previous recordings, these are not well-known, popular tunes. Rather, these selections bring back the depth of feeling of a bygone era. They are as timely today as when they were originally composed by the Tzaddikim of Bobov, Sanz, Ropshitz and a featured masterpiece from the Chassidic court of Modzitz. Sung at the Tischen and during the tefillas on Shabbos and Yom Tov, these niggunim stir the listener’s soul to joy, to tears, and to strive for spiritual heights. The richness of tone, beautiful arrangement and symphonic sound are sure to please the most discriminating ear, while pulling at the strings of the Jewish heart.

*T*ruly, this is a “Time to Dance” for us. This recording is being released in conjunction with the wedding of our dear children,

בתנו החשובה והיקרה הכלה רבקה תחי' עב"ג החתן החשוב והמופלג בתוי"ש משה ישראל נ"י בן כבוד מחור' מר"ה ר' אליעזר כהן נ"י

*M*ay the שמחה של מצוה — together with the שמחה and inspiration provided by these recordings — bring the day closer when קול חתן וקול כלה speedily in our days, אמן.
